ANointed GENERATION WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

*“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”
2Chronicles 7:14 (KJV)*

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining us for this significant and crucial day of prayer. There is power in unity. God commands a blessing when we stand together as believers. The above scripture, 2 Chronicles 7:14, is a call for us as the body of Christ to come together to humble ourselves, pray, seek his face, and turn from our wicked ways. Doing this will result in the healing of our land or in this case the healing of this generation. It's time for us to make a declaration in the Spirit concerning our young people.

We will not accept the attack of the enemy on this generation any longer. We cannot afford to lose them to the enemy and his ways. God has a plan for the children and youth and I believe that this generation is hungry for the reality of God. They are tired of religion and things that are fake. This is not just a day of prayer but also a day of speaking the purposes and destiny of God over this generation. Many prophetic words have gone out over them and my heart is that we will stand in unity and pray as one that these prophecies into being.

I have asked my friend Becky Fischer from Kids in Ministry International (www.kidsinministry.com) to write the main part of this prayer pack and to share with us specific prophetic words we need to lift up in prayer on this day. Included in this packet is:

- a) letter of introduction,
- b) an article by Becky on the importance of praying over the prophecies,
- c) set of prophetic words from well-known ministers around the world, and
- d) a registration form for you to return to us to let us know of your participation.

This time of prayer should be for the whole family. Every one, no matter how young or old, should take part. Whether you are getting together at a church or in the neighborhood with other Spirit filled believers, this is a call to action and intercession like never before. Our mission is to see this generation come into the destiny and purposes of God and to birth a revival in the spiritual realm that will usher in His glory on the earth.

Please register today to be part of this world day of prayer. The registration is free but it just helps us to know who joined us this year. We will also use this information to keep participants informed of any future events. We also request that if you are taking part in this that you will commit to writing down all the words and visions that you receive during prayer so that you can send it to us and allow us to make it available to all other participants. Please feel free to duplicate this information to as many people you feel would be interested in participating.

Thank you once again for joining us and we can't wait to see what God has in store for us.

A CALL TO PRAYER FOR THE CHILDREN

by Becky Fischer

Powerful prophecies and prophetic words over children and youth are surfacing once again from every corner of the earth. For more than twenty to thirty years isolated voices have spoken about a children's and youth revival on many different levels. They all seem to say the same thing—God is going to move upon the children and youth in unprecedented ways. They are going to preach, prophesy, heal the sick, do miracles, and more. They're going to lead the next revival.

Some call them the Joshua Generation—the generation that is going in to “take the land.” Others have called them the Samuel Generation—those that hear His voice and posture themselves in prayer before Him. Some are calling it the Nazarite Generation, emphasizing their commitment to live clean, holy, and above reproach and condemnation. Some are calling them the Elijah generation, with a double portion anointing for signs and wonders. I myself have called this the Josiah Generation—a group that will rise above environments of great dysfunction, sin, and degradation. Yet they will turn to the Lord with all their hearts, as they turn their backs on the sins of their fathers and rise above the dysfunction.

Secular marketers and educators have a half dozen names for them. One of the most common one is the Millennial Generation. As I mentioned in a previous article, they talk about how this group of kids and young people born after 1982 to the present are being watched as potentially one of the greatest generations America has ever seen, second only to the great GI Generation of the Second World War, whose contributions to our society and culture are still being felt today.

There seems to be little doubt—this current youthful generation is about to make a big mark on the world, both from a spiritual and a natural standpoint. And so we wait for the fulfillment of the prophecies. As we do, there is a recurring thought in my mind that won't go away. It concerns the little bit I know about revivals of the past and the nature of prophetic words. By no means do I consider myself a scholar on the subject of past revivals. But I do remember clearly hearing about how a number of them began. Take, for instance, the great Wales Revival under a young man by the name of Evans Roberts. History tells us that he and his younger brother and sister prayed earnestly and faithfully for revival in Wales years before it happened.

The landmark Azusa Street revival came the same way. The partially blind, black leader William Seymour would huddle in devoted prayer, even covering his head and face with a box so he would not be distracted with what others were doing. After a long season of fasting and prayer, came the greatest Pentecostal outpouring in modern history that is still reverberating around the world. It was birthed out of a desperate spiritual hunger for the Spirit of God. Even current revivals such as the eight-year long Brownsville Revival in Pensacola, Florida came after two solid years of weekly fasting and prayer sessions by the pastor and his intercessors in their local church.

The point is, for the most part, it appears many revivals are birthed out of focused, deliberate, and unrelenting prayer and are not the result of some type of spiritual spontaneous combustion or an attitude of what the old song said, “whatever will be will be.”

Prophesy works in a similar way. When one receives a prophetic word from the Lord, it will not automatically come to pass just because it was spoken. To be sure, it is very important to the processes of God that they are released, as it then gives Him legal access to fulfill them on the earth. There has to be some type of agreement and participation from us on some level before they will come to pass, such as the young virgin Mary saying to the angel, “be it unto me according to thy word” (Luke 1:38). We have to ask ourselves what our responsibility is for the prophetic words that have been spoken.

The apostle Paul said, “Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all” (I Timothy 4:14-15).

He's telling us we need to give ourselves entirely to the prophetic word, which means we need to continually pray over them and nurture them to fulfillment. When God speaks something to us prophetically, it is more like He is telling us what our potential is. He's releasing the vision of the possibilities for our lives so we will get excited about it. He's hoping we will press on towards the mark to do what we need to do to get ready to be what God said we can be.

What happened to Daniel is a good example. He read in the Jeremiah what the ancient prophet declared about their Babylonian captivity—it was time for Israel's release. When Daniel read it, his spirit shouted, "Daniel, that's you! It's been seventy years! You're about to come out of bondage!"

Daniel did not run around holding conferences saying, "Guess what God said?" Instead, he began to fast and pray about it. He knew in his heart there was something he was supposed to do to be involved in this process. He had a revelation of what could be, but instinctively he knew he had to birth it for it to become a reality.

Too often we as Christians are too quick to say, "If God said something, then He's going to do it. God is sovereign, so He is going to bring it to pass. So I'm just going to wait for Him to do what He said he was going to do, and if it doesn't happen, then the guy that gave the prophetic word didn't have a true word from the Lord!"

But what is really happening is our potential in the Spirit is being spoken into the earth, but we have not known what to do with it. Whether it is personal prophecies for ourselves, our ministries, or our families, or whether they are words for the larger body of Christ or the world, we have to learn what to do with it to make it come to pass. We need to realize the stir we're feeling in our hearts is to get us excited about what God is saying and go after it by the Spirit (which of course is not to be confused with "making something happen.")

Personal prophecies, or more specifically, the prophecies spoken over this youthful generation, are conditional and it is imperative we understand we have a part to play in order for God will fulfill His Word.

Paul Ang says, "A prophetic word is like a seed that is planted in our spirit. We need to water it, weed it, protect it, and act upon it. We must be doers of the prophetic word and wait patiently for the harvest. Faith alone does not inherit the promises of God. Faith plus patience will inherit them (see Hebrews 6:12). Reaping the prophetic word means that our progress and fruit will be evident to all."

If this is the case, may I suggest that the Holy Spirit has been working overtime for years trying to get our attention concerning His desire for today's children and youth? Prophecy after prophecy has circulated for years, and we occasionally hear of pockets of where they seem to be fulfilled at least on a short-term basis, but then it dies down again. In the meantime the prophecies keep coming.

Dr. Howard Hendricks, chairman of the Center for Christian Leadership, said, "If we don't act soon, we may lose a whole generation..." Friends, it's time we go into our prayer closets with the prophecies in our hands and begin praying them back to the Lord. We're told we're to make war with the prophecies we've been given.

This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 1 Timothy 1:18

In his book, Transforming Children Into Spiritual Champions, George Barna spent time discussing churches who had the greatest success ratios in watching their children grow into teens and young adults who remained committed, engaged, and excited about their faith in Christ. He wrote, "The most important resource, we believe, was the amazing amount of prayer for children and parents that was evident at the most effective ministries to children." In other words, it should be no surprise that in churches and ministries where children have been bathed in prayer, they have come out the strongest spiritually.

It is critical that we as the church stop considering children the church of the future because when we say this, it is too easy to become mentally complacent thinking we have plenty of time to act before that day comes. It is not about "us now" and "them later." We need a completely new paradigm shift in our thinking. We need to understand this is about the kingdom of God being established on this earth and it happens as one generation deliberately and on purpose begins to model, mentor, disciple, and train the next generation. And in that mix must be deliberate and on purpose concerted prayer over this generation if the prophecies are ever going to come to pass on a worldwide scale. It's not going to sovereignly happen by itself.

There's a place where we need to do something with what has been spoken over this generation. God is waiting for us to act. There's something about our words that releases God's words, and something about our words that opens up the heavens so God can release angels to do what He said He'd do.

"Get up! Cry out at night, every hour on the hour. Pour your heart out like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift up your hands to him [in prayer] for the life of your little children who faint from (spiritual)* hunger at every street corner" (Lamentations 2:19 Gods' Word Translation).

Saints, let's pray for our children and pray that every prophetic word that has ever been spoken over them will come to pass!

 (The word "spiritual" is my addition.)*

PROPHECIES OVER THIS GENERATION

BY LEADING MEN AND WOMEN OF FAITH AND INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO USE THEM TO WAR OVER THIS GENERATION

by Becky Fischer

The following pages contain publicized prophecies by well-known contemporary men and women of the faith. Many of these are easily accessible on the internet. Others have been sent to me by friends. There are no doubt many more in existence from other prophetic ministers, but I simply do not have the time to research them out. If you know of any others, I would greatly appreciate you sending them to me via email at kidsinministry@yahoo.com or mailing them to the address on the back of this hand out. To my knowledge this is the only collection of prophecies that has strictly to do with this generation. We have them posted on our website at www.kidsinministry.com under "The Prophets Speak."

In following Paul's instructions in I Timothy 1:18 to war over the prophecies that have been made, we felt compelled to put these prophecies in your hands for prayer purposes. As you go to prayer, we suggest you have these prophecies with you and use different key points to lift up in prayer, rather than praying in generalities.

For instance where Rick Joyner prophecies that children will speak to raging storms and stop them with the power of their words, pray something like, "Father, we pray that children will begin to take authority over weather conditions that are life threatening to them and others." Or in the case where Cindy Jacobs and Bill Hamon have prophesied great revival coming to the schools, put the name of your nation in your prayer and begin to pray, "God, send revival to our schools! Sovereignly visit them and fall upon the children. Send Christian children to their friends to begin sharing about Jesus."

Let the Holy Spirit guide you in choosing the specific phrases and points to pray over.

Also use scriptures as you pray such as Joel 2:28, "In the last days I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh and your sons and daughters shall prophesy." There are many scriptures that speak of children prophetically. Some of the following are of a negative nature as well as positive. Construct your prayers in such a way that we pray against the enemy's plan for our kids. You may have a list of your own that should be shared with your prayer team.

Isaiah 8:18	Mark 7:27	Luke 9:48	Isaiah 49:15	Joshua 4:6-8

You said revival must take place in the church, but the Spirit of the Lord says

I'm not going to do it any longer in the church. I'm going to do it within your schools and in your colleges. What's going to happen says the Spirit of the Lord is I'm going to take the ones that are marked with anger and those are the ones that I have marked as the evangelist of the colleges and evangelist of the schools. I'm going to go to the kindergarten schools. I'm going to the children, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 year olds and I'm going to fill them with the Spirit right there in child care. I'm going to fill them with my Spirit.

And it is going to break forth in the schools and God says they're going to run into this house and run into that house because I'm going to change the political arena. Prayer and praise will suddenly be re-instated and God says they will not pray like they used to pray. The dead old prayer to the dead old god is over says the Lord. They are going to pray to the Jesus that was risen from the dead. I'm going to bring my force and I'm going to raise them up in this end time says the Lord."

October 3, 2003 TBN (Hendersonville, Tennessee)

The spirit of the Lord, says, "listen to me! Families of America, is it not true the enemy has endeavored to break and to destroy the families on the earth? But I rest my case as I tell you that your sons and your daughters shall emerge as prophets and priests. They shall emerge and take by force.

And that which the enemy has violently claimed from the parents of these children, they will arise, says the Lord. They shall arise and they shall take by force that which the enemy took away from their fathers and their forefathers. The blood cries out, but the spirit of the Lord says look at your children, even the unborn and you watch them rise up says the Lord.

For they shall arise and take by force; they shall not be afraid, they shall not be timid, they shall not be afraid. They shall take what is rightfully theirs and they will say, This is ours! They will storm the gates of hell! They will storm the gates of hell! says the Lord. Your Children shall do it! Therefore rejoice America, for I am raising up young ones like Samuel that shall break down the spirits of the east, says the Lord.

Prophetic Image Expressions, Dec. 31, 2004

The Spirit of the Lord says, "There shall be upper room experiences that shall come. There shall be experiences that shall take place similar to the day of Pentecost. Suddenly, My people shall become relevant to a culture that has separated itself from the religious, from dullness, from death. There shall be an upper room experience as on the day of Pentecost. No religious activity.

"But My Spirit shall once again give young men and women tongues of fire. They shall become relevant to this generation. It's already started. It's too late," says the Spirit. "They have been born, and the generation that Satan tried to abort has survived. For every one child that he took out through legalized abortion, I have given two in their place. And those two have survived. And for every one that died before their time, there shall be five in their stead. For one Sally, there shall be five. And for one that died, this was a seed that went into the ground, and I will raise up five in their place."

A Word to the Children

Given June 24, 2005 - Anaheim, CA

The Spirit of the Lord says, there shall be an acceleration of the arts in your children. I will take them as a generation and send them to invade the industry that has been possessed by perversion and controlled by the sinful nature of man. In this place I will give you building just for the purpose of training and anointing young men and young women to take the kingdom by force.

And they shall say, where did these children come from wandering around doing nothing? Moses, what is that that you have in your hand? It is a rod. No, it is not. Throw it down, and I'll show you what you have in your hand. You laugh at the children of this generation, saying they have sticks and stones and no religious swords. I took David's mighty men and they slew hundreds with just a few stick and a few stones. David, what do you have in your hand? A stone. Then use it to bring down the force that is intimidating the children of Israel and my people, says the Lord of Hosts. Bring it down by one strike...

...But there are also miraculous medical cures and, suddenly, leukemia shall no longer have its sting upon this generation of young people because of the medical discovery and the breakthrough, says the Lord.

The Release of Children, as heard on Trinity Broadcasting Network, July 11, 2005

We release the children. I prophesy to the families of this nation: Your children shall be raised with a unique anointing, with a unique translation and interpretation of the things of the Spirit. I pray that what happened on the day of Pentecost will happen again, that tongues of fire will come upon them and they will speak a language that is relevant to each nation that they are called to. For the man that is a lunatic on the other side, we commission him as the missionary. There is a brand new group of missionaries being raised up in the Kingdom right now; they are our children and our children's children."

Word for the New Millennium

By: the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Leaders
November 30, 1999

“A great youth revival is coming in America. Schools will be shaken for the glory of God. Many young people will be drawn into the church as they were during the Jesus Movement. God warned us that we must be ready to receive them or we might miss this move of God. This means that, among other things, we must prepare our people not to criticize them if their hair is Technicolor and they have body piercing or tattoos. God Himself will change their hearts, but we must not let false legalism drive them away. There is also a new Samuel generation of young children who will prophesy and restore the Word of the Lord to their generation.”

Restoring the Spirit of Elijah

May 5, 2002

The Lord says, “You must mix it with the spirit of Elijah, the turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers to have the equation that will release the former and the latter rains of revival,” says God.

A Prophetic Call to Revolution

August 5, 2000

“I am calling radical revolutionaries to the church. There is a sound going forth from heaven, says the Lord. I am calling from the north and the south and the east and the west. They’re going to move, they’re going to change universities to come to these command posts. They’re going to change jobs. I’m going to bring the 18, 19, 20, 21 year olds, and they’re going to mentor the generation under them. And then the high-schoolers are going to mentor the generations under them.

“And I would say, these youth are going to put the adults to shame. Because they’re going to be full of holy passion, a fiery passion for the Lord. So the Lord says, get ready for I have said many things over the church, and I have made many promises. With some of you, hope deferred has made the heart grow sick. But I have found the way for the church and for this youth, says the Lord. And the Lord says, there is going to be a day when there are as many youth as adults in these command post churches, for

I am going to move—I would not pass you by.

“And the Lord says I’m going to put the gift of evangelism in the youth of these churches. I’m going to cause them to bring souls and souls and souls. They’re going to invade the high school campuses. They’re going to invade the universities of their cities.”

Editor’s Note: The following notes were sent to me from a friend who had been in a Cindy Jacobs meeting. So keep in mind this is not a transcription, and it’s accuracy is dependent on how well my friend heard and understood. But because it is completely in line with what the other prophets are saying and consistent with other transcribed prophecies by Cindy, we included it.

Cindy prophesied that there will be children’s revivals all around the world. She prophesied that revivals are coming to schools and we need Bible club materials. She said to seek the Holy Spirit and be ready and we could help birth a whole movement to study God’s Word in public venues (recess, activities, lunchrooms, etc.). She sensed that parents could become activists for kids learning about the Bible in school.

She said, “In order to transform, you have to be intentional—wanting to see God in every aspect of a believer’s life will change the world.” She defined transformational thinking as giving kids reasons for living their lives and becoming world changers. Kids are hungry for spiritual reality. She sees a need to teach kids how to move in the miraculous, how to operate in spiritual gifts. (“Don’t tell them not to be afraid; teach them how to rebuke the spirit of fear!”) Teach kids how to radically walk in a way that pleases God no matter what happens in society.

She said, “You are postured right now for something pretty amazing—movement in schools. God’s going to be the answer to this generation. Do you want to be a part of the answer? Embrace the call, and then God will show you how to do it. God is going to teach you how to bridge generations.” She repeated this phrase a few times “Change a nation through a generation.”

 Child Evangelism Fellowship has recently won more than 50 cases in federal courts ruling schools must allow their Good News Clubs to meet free of charge on elementary campuses just like groups such as the Boys Scouts. They now have 2,000 Clubs in public schools across the US, and are aggressively looking for volunteer leaders to help establish more.

New Wave of Revivalists

The Revivalists of God's Apostolic Power and Authority

The Lord revealed to me that a new wave of revivalists has been launched and will continue to grow and multiply. The revivalists will emerge particularly (yet not completely) from the generation born between 1960 to 1990. They will be carrying powerful evangelistic, prophetic, apostolic and miracle working anointings. The apostolic sign of the raising of the dead will be performed through some of these revivalists.

The Revivalists of God's Holiness

The Lord is also going to raise up the holiness revivalists again in this generation. They will release and manifest the holy presence of God in such a way that the fear of the Lord will fall on the Body of Christ. This will not be holiness that is produced through man's agenda or through a code of law that attempts to produce righteousness but that which comes through the Spirit of God, delivered in a spirit of grace and truth. Prayer will be needed for these revivalists and what they carry to be accepted. They will bring forth a new paradigm. Potential unhealthy conflict might arise if it is not prayed into.

High Levels of Honor Required

The various streams of revival are to work together for the sake of the gospel as each one carries a piece. The Lord is calling for high levels of honor among them. Competition between them and judgment and criticism of each other will not be tolerated by the Lord. Tensions between them will potentially bring about clarity and enlargement of biblical theological interpretation when processed in a spirit of humility and peace.

Infants, Children and Young Teens

The Lord is imparting powerful gifting on the infants and young children and teens (ages 0-14). These will be in a generation who are highly sensitive to the realm of the spirit. Many of them will be strong leaders.

Conception

The Lord revealed that from the months of September - December 2004, there will be an unusual amount of conceptions in the Body of Christ. Many of these babies to be born between the months of June - September 2005 will be girls and will be named HARVEST. Their birth and name will be a prophetic statement regarding the revivalists that are emerging to lead the Body into the harvest season.

Chuck Pierce wrote the following in a 21-day prayer focus titled "Praying Like Daniel" (July 20, 2004 Prayer Alert, www.glory-of-zion.org):

"We need to train our children in the release of the anointing, discerning of evil spirits, and how to operate in receiving divine revelation from the Throne Room. I feel this is a time to train our children in a supernatural dimension that will give them authority in the days ahead on this earth. I do not want my children to be afraid of the supernatural. We find, in the first two chapters of Daniel, that he was trained to understand the supernatural; knowing how to receive divine revelation. He knew how to seek the Lord in almost any situation. The Lord is going to require us to parent our children like this in days ahead.

Excerpt from The Harvest,
Whitaker House, 1997, page 34

“One of the most extraordinary characteristics of the harvest will be the youthfulness of the laborers. Teenagers will be the backbone of the revival, and preteens will be some of its greatest evangelists. Young children will cast out demons, heal the sick, raise the dead, and divert raging floods with a word. Some will actually take dominion over entire hospitals and mental institutions, healing every patient in them by laying hands on the buildings. During the harvest the world will understand that “...the children whom the Lord has given me are for signs and wonders...” (Isaiah 8:18)”

On Women and Children

”The Lord called a dozen men. He changed them and then they changed the world. In your time He is going to do the same with children. It is also the time of the lioness. Great are the company of women who will preach the gospel. There will be many great men of God in your time, but the great marvel, and the great honor in your time will be for the women and the children who walk in the wisdom and the power of the Lord. Remember that it was the woman who was deceived, and had enmity with the serpent, but it will be her seed that crushes it’s head in this fight. It is their time, and time for the children to be signs & wonders. They will turn the tide of the last battle. Gather the children and help their mothers and you will be given all that you need.”

Rick has also recently published a book titled “The Torch and the Sword” which is a prophetic look at the last days battle for Christians. Threaded throughout the book, children play a decisive role in the spiritual battle. Click on the image for more information.

Some who will receive this prophetic word are called to another of His end-time purposes - the youth and children’s army for revival. Don’t copy old wineskins of youth and children’s ministry. The new model will weave together worship, intercession, and evangelism in a depth and intensity that will astound many, but which will bring in the great Harvest. As His Spirit is poured out on this generation, He will do a quick and intense work. Don’t interfere with His “pressure cooker”, as He allows them to go through breaking and sanctifying processes that are more intense, and at a younger age than what you experienced.

There are many prophetic words from different respected ministries about the position of God's heart towards children and youth. I believe the end-times will be marked with children and youth on the forefront of Christian ministry. No longer will they be treated like a "Lady in Waiting," but their true purpose of co-inheriting with us will be understood.

Dream of the Divided Rooms

I had a profound dream that involved my friends, Marvin and Sally Adams, who direct a 24/7 prayer ministry called "The Furnace" in Chicago. As I shared the dream with Marvin that was directed towards his ministry, I received greater understanding that this was for the whole body of Christ.

In the dream, a building was present with children's ministry downstairs and adults' ministry upstairs. The stairs that met between the two rooms were occupied by a demonic spirit that only the children could see. This spirit intimidated the children from going up and getting engaged in what God was doing with the adults in the upper room. Therefore they sat entertained in the lower place.

Although I have never seen the movie "The Exorcist" the demon looked just like the little girl from that movie when she was in a full demonic manifestation.

I watched a church service going on in the upper room and Marvin asked the parents to bring their children upstairs so that they could watch a video of healing miracles being done through children in Africa. The movie highlighted the missionary trips of our friend, Jennifer Miller, and her ministry in Kenya. The parents had to pull their children upstairs because they were so frightened by the demonic figure in the stairwell.

When everyone was gathered, Marvin turned on the video tape but to our surprise the movie "The Exorcist" was playing in the video player! I have not seen the movie but the part that was playing was when the priest was first trying to deliver the little girl but he became intimidated by the demonic realm.

All of the children in the room (including youth) told their parents that this is why they never came up to the upper room, because they were scared of this demon.

The Priesthood was the Key

I stepped forward and began to prophesy to the parents and said "Because we have not taught the children about their priesthood in God and released them as consecrated unto the Lord, they are intimidated by the enemy. We have to teach the children about their Royal priesthood, and release them into the Acts of priesthood." Everyone knew when I said "Acts of priesthood" that I was referring to the Acts of the Apostles.

When I said this and it found agreement in the room among God's people, the most amazing thing happened. The stairs disappeared giving no more access to the lower place where the children used to go. They became part of the upper room from that day forward.

When I awoke I realized that children's spiritual rights are very precious to the Lord. When He said "Let the little children come unto me." It was not so that He could just play with them. The Lord desired to share His purpose with them and bless them in the kingdom pursuit. Everything Jesus did, He did with a purpose.

They Have the Same Access to the Depth of God

Children have the same access to the Holy Spirit that we do. Even though they may not have the same level of maturity or character, the Holy Spirit is mature and is God and can move as freely in them as He can in His most proven vessels. If they choose to walk with God, they can have the same anointing of the mind of Christ that is available to us in 1 Corinthians 2.

I saw young people stepping into an eternal timing where they would learn in moments the lessons that took us years. They do not have to be taught through the pain of life experiences if they learn it by spiritual experience.

Escalating the Harvester Anointing!

I heard the Lord say that if we will release the children as disciples, it will begin to escalate the "harvester" anointing upon our ministries. There is going to be great favor given to those who would liberate the children and youth to do the exploits of God.

Youth Discipleship Ministries Will be Financed This Year

There is going to be a special burden on spiritual Josephs to finance ministries that aren't just a training ground for children and youth, but are a tactical release of real ministry to the Lord. Children's equipping centers and youth intern programs are going to spiritually prosper when they become spiritual boot camps that lead their disciples into real trenches. The Holy Spirit is going to move the hearts of financiers to build that which Heaven is burdened with. God wants to fascinate young people with miracles and evangelism not entertaining programs.

Written to teenagers, children, and babies

“There is not just a youth revival coming but a youth revolution! You are going to the public schools, private schools, church schools, and home schools. A revolutionary revival is coming to schools from kindergarten through college. You will invade all areas of the world with supernatural kingdom of God. Many will get activated by becoming involved in intercessory prayer walks, Bible studies, and spiritual renewal meetings. You the “Transition Generation.”

Your group will be the generation that will fully manifest the Saints Movement, become the Army of the Lord, and bring forth the “Kingdom Establishing Movement” which will finalize the restoration of all things, releasing Jesus to come from heaven and take dominion over all the earth.” Jesus is still saying today that we should allow the children to come unto Him for He is going to use them mightily. Jesus is excited about this age group, for they will be the ones to bring Him back as King.

Even now God is going to sovereignly visit the teenage and junior age children, moving them into the Holy

Winning the Children Will Win the Parents

I was shown that when the young people begin to see this move of evangelism spread, not only will children be saved, but their parents will come running to the Lord as well. God is going to use the hearts of children to win their parents to Jesus. He has a great strategy to convict parents through their children. When the parents see the radical transformation their kids have gone through, they will not be able to deny the Lord.

If you have children or are responsible for leading them, I would encourage you to pray over them a prayer of liberation. Impart to them the purpose of the kingdom for their lives now. Then we will have a generational anointing.

Spirit realm of visions and supernatural visitations. They will prophesy very specific things and heal the sick. They will receive such revelation of Jesus that it will cause them to lose all fear of the devil and evil spirits. They will know that the smallest child of God cleansed by the blood, clothed with the robe of righteousness and the garment of praise can whip the biggest demon hell has to offer.

They will be little David's, boldly going against and defeating great Goliath's."I challenge youth pastors to begin preaching and imparting this vision and faith to the youth. Believe for God's visitation and be prepared to allow it to happen when it starts. Young people, get pregnant with this visitation. Get such a hunger and thirst until you are filled with God's righteousness, revolutionary revival, and another restoration move of God!

Start preparing now so that you will be prepared to participate in all God is about to do. Your generation is going to experience all that the prophets have seen and longed to participate in. Do not miss your day of visitation, for you are a predestined and privileged generation.”

“THE SAMUEL GENERATION — A Word for Children”

December 30, 2004

UNDERGROUND NETWORK OF PRAYING CHILDREN

The Lord has been gathering an underground network of praying children and young people. They may not currently meet in huge numbers, but that is because if “we” (the church) “got our hands on it” too early, “we” would inadvertently mess it up!

CHILD CHAMPIONS OF PRAYER AND FAITH WILL ARISE

“The child prayer movement has not been strong enough to release fully into the public domain until now, but in the next 12-24 months I am going to cause child champions of prayer and faith to rise up in their generation, and their words will be powerful and prophetically anointed.

“They will require mentoring in like manner as Eli mentored Samuel, in order that they can be trained to discern my voice for themselves and respond to me in obedience, for it is my desire that none of their words will fall to the ground. There is a need for this generation to be nurtured and disciplined. They are a hungry generation.

“I am teaching children how to develop a personal relationship with me, and giving them an understanding of the need for quality time alone with me as well as time together with other children. I have placed an “all or nothing” desire in the hearts of these children. They cannot and will not settle for any kind of compromised Gospel message. They are hungry for spiritual truth.”

“THE SAMUEL GENERATION WILL POSTURE THEMSELVES IN INTERCESSORY PRAYER FOR THE NATIONS”

“As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord by failing to pray for you and I will teach you the way that is good and right.” 1 Samuel 12:23

The Samuel generation will posture themselves before the Lord in intercessory prayer for the nations.

“I have convened micro level meetings across many nations, where handfuls of children have gathered to seek my face. I am releasing a fresh mantle upon the children of the nations to gather and for the Dunamis power of my Holy Spirit to move powerfully upon them and through them. I will shake gatherings as I did in the first days of my church (Acts 2:3) as the prayers of thousands of children are lifted to my throne. As the children call out for my mighty hand to move, I will hear and I will answer.

“The children will pray in simple words, but they will not lack radical or extreme love. The prayers of my children are relevant and cutting edge. I am rising up an army of 24-7 children who will have their hearts rights before me. These children are sold out in intimacy for me and are prepared to die for love of God. They are martyrs of my mercy. Many children from persecuted nations will give their lives for my namesake, and will remain faithful to the end (Acts 7:59,60).”

A NAZIRITE AND MISSIONARY GENERATION

“I will raise up for myself a faithful priest.” 1 Samuel 2:35

“For I will raise up a faithful generation for myself from amongst the children of the nations. They are a missionary generation with a vision for revival, to love their Lord, to love the lost, and to love the church. I am restoring the priesthood to be a worshipping, interceding, prophetic evangelistic people. The Samuel generation represent such a people and includes many children.

“The Samuel generation will be the church that acts! The Samuel generation are the paradigm. Radical holiness, purity, devotion, and availability are required from this generation. They are called out, set apart, and sanctified for me and by me. I am rising up a Nazarite generation of little children whose posture before me will be to place their relationship with me as priority. They will confront corruption in the purity of chastity. I will not treat their offerings to me with contempt because they are offered from pure hearts.”

A VOICE TO THE NATIONS, THE CHURCH, AND THE LOST

”Return to the Lord with all your heart.” 1 Samuel 7

”The Samuel generation will be a voice to the nations and a voice to the church, calling the lost into the Kingdom and calling believers to devotion to Christ. They will speak forth revelation to the church about the Kingship of Christ. This end time generation of children will be prophetically accurate and what they prophesy will come to pass (1 Samuel 9:6; 1 Samuel 3:19).”

”THE SAMUEL GENERATION HERALDS A NEW SEASON”

”And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and favor with the Lord and with men.” 1 Samuel 2:26

”This generation of boys and girls will know the fear of the Lord. They will know my favor and will be held in esteem by both God and men. The children will help to usher in my Kingly anointing. The Samuel generation heralds a new season, whereby spiritual barrenness is broken and new birth will come forth in my church. For those who have labored in prayer as Hannah, and have loved in like manner to Hannah and Elkanah,” the Lord says, “the sorrow of your travail will now bear much abundant and beautiful fruit.”

The birthing of the Samuel generation represents an increase in apostolic/prophetic authority in the church and speaks of a people willing to lovingly submit to Christ’s governmental authority. This Samuel generation will have impeccable character and be honest and virtuous and will be a testimony to God’s righteousness (1 Samuel 12).

The Samuel generation will know an increase in anointing and will pour themselves out for love of others. Anointing will pour forth from the children just as it did from the horn of oil with which Samuel anointed King Saul and King David (1 Samuel 10; 1 Samuel 16). Amen.

JEAN DARNELL

“The second thing I said to watch for is unusual manifestations of the Lord to boys and girls between the ages of 9-15. Jesus is going to appear to them. He’s going to come to them in visions and dreams. He’s going to make himself known to boys and girls who are in non-Christian homes, in homes of violence, in homes where there is no love, in homes where there is no family continuity and care and tenderness - but Jesus is going to come to these children - and they will start appearing.

They’ll start coming to their teachers and to other people or other Christians that they will meet, and tell about their unusual dreams and visions of the Lord. The Lord is already doing it friends - so my word was as I went along, to Sunday school teachers and parents - don’t play down what these children tell you when the Lord appears to them - when they come to you and tell you these unusual experiences. And some of these children won’t have ‘churchy language’, you know, they don’t come from Christian families, so they are not going to say it right, the way we are used to hearing it, but they will be telling about unusual experiences. When that time comes, give them the nurture and the wisdom and the love that they need, because they are future leaders in the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, and will become mightily used of the Lord.

That’s good news, folks! Watch for it and wait for it. Start expecting unusual things to happen to the children you are teaching, because the Spirit of the Lord is preparing their hearts to receive the fullness of the Holy Ghost - to receive gifts of the Holy Spirit, to receive healing, to receive ministries of healing to others as the Lord uses these children.”

Given at a Mark Brazee Ministries Holy Ghost Rally

Editor's note: This was a prophecy given specifically to Mark Brazee and his wife, Janet. However, we feel it has universal significance to the body of Christ as you compare it to the other prophecies in this site. There have been a number of children's ministers who have been impacted very personally by this word. So if it witnesses with your heart, reach out and receive it.

"Last night in His presence, I saw something so clear. And this is what He said about what He showed me. He said by this move He would honor Himself. That He would honor Himself as a just God. That He would honor Himself as a merciful God. That He would bring glory to Himself.

"And the move that He was showing me was something so beautiful, and something so holy, and something so precious. Because His hand is being reached out and stretched out. But in this move He showed me that it would just be His hand. His hand would be at the end of an arm that would be extended. And that arm would be extended to embrace the children in the world. The children of the world. So that no one would be able to judge God in the end and point their finger to Him and say that He was not just. Because justice and mercy always precedes it. Mercy always precedes justice. And so a great move of mercy would go throughout the whole world amongst the children of the world.

"And even in this plan a whole move for child evangelism would be a great spoke. And so God will gather to Himself the children in the world. And those that have no name; those that have no home are going to be finding homes in these days. Because God is going to raise up homes and establishments all over the world to gather the children to Himself. And in this great move He will glorify and honor Himself as a Father. As a Father. And He will be a Father to the fatherless. And He will be a Father to those who have no home and who have no name.

"And so those who have thought that you have already raised your own and those that have even raised your children, will find yourself again rocking the babes. And will find yourselves again raising up little ones. But this time not just naturally. Because these little ones who have no purpose but just only to find their way to whatever food they can find. In these days, they'll find the greatest purpose of all. For in these days, they'll not only find a home, but in this home they will find great purpose. And God is reserving much anointing. God is reserving much equipment for these people. These little ones. And in the mouth of these little babes, the adversary will be silenced. And oh, there will be many who say, "These people are nothing. These little ones are nothing." And they would have been ones that have been kicked aside. And they would have been the ones that the people have looked down upon.

"But oh, God is searching out these little ones. And out of their mouth will come great, great authority. And great, great prophecy. And great events will happen among these little children. The little children of the world. And so, and so, it's a wonderful things that God will do in these days. Oh, not just one place here and not just one place there. But it will be multiplied over and over in this nation and around the world. And so the children will come, red and yellow, black and white, because they are precious in His sight. And they will march together these little feet. They will march together in a heavenly beat. And God will use these little ones as little keys and they will open great doors. And oh, even the enemy will not even look toward these as great, great possibilities.

"But God in these lives has given keys. And so, look into your heart. For even in these days, God is calling those to help raise up the little ones. And so, you will find yourself going and you will find yourself coming. And great love for those who were not born to you. Great love for those who did not come forth from you naturally. But there will be such great love, and oh, heaven's doors will open to these and they will go in mass. And they will come in mass. And they will sing forth the praises of God. And they will see things that have been reserved for them. Because they were the least but God calls them the most. And those that have been thought of as the off scouring of the world, God looks at them and the very gold in His heart.

"And so, in these days, God will honor Himself in great moves. Oh, Asia, Asia, Asia (tongues) all the things that have happened have not been hid from the eyes of God. But He will break the arm of the oppressor and oh these things will come. And (tongues) those that have been cast off, and even cast away and even thrown away will be gathered in (tongues). And they'll be gathered in by even some of those who stand in this place tonight. Because it is not a small move that God is doing. But God is calling those from all over. For His arm is extended in these days and His hand is reaching out and there will be great signs and wonders done among all the peoples of the world and it will not exclude the children.

”And even the children who have no home. And oh, great glory. Even the world will look and they will say, “A God who does that is a good God. A God who will take care of the children is a good God. He is a just God. Look what He does for children. Look how He cares for children.” And all that has been done in years past in this way and as a move of God and as an outreach of God.

To these people is only but a fraction of that which will be done in these last days. For God will honor Himself. God will honor Himself. And He will be a Father to the fatherless.”
